

Leek Show 2018

Will be held on

SATURDAY, 8TH AND SUNDAY, 9TH SEPTEMBER

Why not compete in the 2018 Leek Show, taking place in The Pit Village?
Submit your entry free of charge, there are certificates and rosettes up for grabs! The categories are below, entry form over the page.

Home Grown Vegetables (As pulled, tops on, cleaned)

2 leeks (dressed)

3 beetroots

3 onions

3 carrots

3 pea pods

3 potatoes

3 tomatoes, with stalks

Longest bean

Heaviest marrow

Any misshapen vegetable

Tray of mixed vegetables, judged on variety and quality

Floral Arrangements

3 best sweetpeas, displayed in a jam jar

Arrangement entitled "Suffragette"

Children's Category

A posy of garden flowers

Judging to be take place on Saturday, 8th September and with owners' permission, vegetables and flowers will be auctioned on the afternoon of Sunday, 9th September at 3.30pm.

The Great North Festival of Agriculture

The Great North Festival of Agriculture, a whole season celebrating the rich agricultural and rural heritage of North East England.
30th August to 30th September 2018.

Dates for your diary:

Dig for Victory - 30th August to 2nd September

Leek Show - 8th & 9th September

Agricultural Show - 13th to 16th September

Hands-on Heritage Skills - 22nd & 23rd September

Harvest Festival and Harvest Home - 29th & 30th September

There is no extra charge for the Great North Festival of Agriculture.

Admission is included in the museum entry charge, and Beamish Unlimited Passes are valid for all daytime events.

Leek Show entry form

Name:

Telephone number:

Categories entered:

Please bring your completed form along with your entry to the Leek Show marquee before 11am on Saturday 8th September.

Dates and information can be found on the front page of this booklet.

For more information please contact Debra Calder:

Email debracalder@beamish.org.uk, tel. 0191 370 4042